

OUR VALUES:

All Glory to God:

We humbly give God the credit for everything.

Scripture:

Ephesians 3:20-21 Now all glory to God, who is able, through his mighty power at work within us, to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think. Glory to him in the church and in Christ Jesus through all generations forever and ever! Amen.

1 Corinthians 10:31 So whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 12:7 A spiritual gift is given to each of us so we can help each other.

Ephesians 2:10 For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.

Demonstrated by:

Intentionally using the gifts God has given each of us for His glory.

Trusting that the Holy Spirit works in us and guides all of our actions.

Humbly expecting that God accomplishes more through us than we can ask or think or do by ourselves.

Thoughts:

"Christ is not valued at all, unless He is valued above all."

— Augustine

"Will God ever ask you to do something you are not able to do? The answer is yes--all the time! It must be that way, for God's glory and kingdom. If we function according to our ability alone, we get the glory; if we function according to the power of the Spirit within us, God gets the glory. He wants to reveal Himself to a watching world."

— Henry T. Blackaby

"I give all the glory to God. It's kind of a win-win situation. The glory goes up to Him and the blessings fall down on me."

— Gabby Douglas

"On the field I'm trying to play for the glory of God but then also I'm trying to give everything I have and win and compete. And so I think more than just winning or losing, I think He cares about where our hearts are when we're playing."

— Tim Tebow

Reflections:

What does "It's because of who He is" mean to you?

Reflect on: "God is the artist, I am the art."

How do people see you give God thanks and praise?

Where are you being given the credit and glory for your actions?

How can you redirect that credit to God?
